

GERMAN - JAPANESE FORENSIC FORUM

SEMINAR ROOM | INSTITUTE OF LEGAL MEDICINE
BUTENFELD 34 | 22529 HAMBURG

Block I: Road to Frankfurt & Traditional Practices Revisited

Chair: Dr. Allgoewer

- 13:00 – 13:15 Prof. Ondruschka: How long is the arm? (German)
- 13:15 – 13:30 Dr. Zwirner: Forensic tissue mechanics
- 13:30 – 13:45 Dr. Huter: Commercial AI in legal medicine (German)
- 13:45 – 14:00 Prof. Sperhake: Dating myocardial infarction
- 14:00 – 14:15 PD Schröder: Forensic bite mark analysis
- 14:15 – 14:30 Ms. Stolle: Quality of cause-of-death determination in childhood deaths (German)
- 14:30 – 14:45 Prof. Kondo (Wakayama): Multidisciplinary approaches for diagnosing hypothermia
- 14:45 – 15:00 Dr. Wenzel: Dumping or an unfortunate choice of sleeping? (German)
- 15:00 – 15:15 Prof. Anders-Lohner: Modelling temperature-based time since death estimation
- 15:15 – 15:30 Coffee Break

Block II: Infectious Diseases

Chair: Ms. Breunig

- 15:30 – 15:45 Dr. Allgoewer: Minimally invasive tissue sampling for Lassa fever pathology research
- 15:45 – 16:00 PD Heinemann: Artificial intelligence in post mortem imaging
- 16:00 – 16:15 Prof. Ikematsu (Nagasaki): Highly infectious death cases in Japan
- 16:15 – 16:30 Prof. Glatzel (Neuropathology, UKE): Post-infectious CNS syndromes
- 16:30 – 16:45 Prof. Albrecht (Potsdam): Immediate medical care and confidential forensic evidence collection in Brandenburg
- 16:45 – 17:00 Mr. Neidhardt (TUHH): Robotic tissue biopsies in VR environment followed by a hands-on session

